

48 William Street West Croydon SA

5  2  5

A home of the highest calibre, uncompromising in style and quality and with a sense of uniqueness that pays perfect tribute to William Streets historic and tree-lined streetscape. This home presents itself graciously amongst Croydon's finest homes, while inside it is a revelation?

The property stands out as an architectural marvel, designed for luxurious family living and immediately impressive with its quintessential picket fence, meticulously manicured English-style gardens, and bluestone-clad heritage façade. Originally built circa 1915, the home was full of character but lacked modern functionality. The vendors embarked on an extensive and expensive renovation to preserve its historic charm while introducing contemporary finishes culminating in a stunning rear
